Sean "The" Kidd eyed high-rise apartment buildings lustfully, estimating the number of schizophrenic prospects (20 just in the buildings he could see!). Sean should have told Signor Citizen Hearse-Ferrari. He would have been interested to know. It was his building!

"The" Kidd noted the prevalence of bad housekeeping and bad hygiene among THEM. Maybe Johnny's landlord should have talked to SEAN – because they were all slobs at Emile Durkheim House - so maybe they were all schizophrenic too (as opposed to 99% - Johnny's estimation).

It seemed to Johnny there was nothing Sean "The Kidd" had to offer that a good Personal Support Worker couldn't have done just as well or better - and for a lot less than The Kidd's "socially entrepreneurial" $110,000 plus salary. Well, the acronym was new - but as a shtick for a $200,000,000 fundraiser - it wasn't LAME; it was PATHETIC.

Actually, Sean should have talked to Miserable Mizrahi, since BAD HOUSEKEEPING was obviously another indication, like sunglasses and aversion to crowds. Eureka!

Annother DEGENRATE!

It was an EPIDEMIC! The PLAGUE!
